ballet tech cincinnati invites students in grades 3-6 from the Greater Cincinnati Area to submit AMERICAN INSPIRED artwork to the Made in America poster contest. The production, Made in America, will be presented at the Aronoff the weekend of May 4-5, 2007. This Spring, Made in America will take audience members on a journey through time and across our nation with inspiring stories of courageous American youth. As part of the Leaping for Literacy project, this production is inspired by "The Dear America," "American Girl," and "My Name is America" book series'. 25 winning posters will be selected. The first place winner's artwork will be incorporated into the design of the Made in America promotional poster which will be displayed throughout the Greater Cincinnati Area. The winner will also receive a family four-pack of tickets to see Made in America. The 24 runners-up will have their posters displayed in the lobby of the Jarson-Kaplan Theatre during the run of the show, and will receive one complimentary ticket. Winning posters will also be galleried on our website. Artwork submitted will not be returned.

The Artwork submitted should:

- be created on 8 ½" X 11" paper (artwork should include enough open space in its design so that we can add the Show title, dates, ticket info, and sponsor logos. Students should not include the title of the ballet or other text in their artwork; nor should they sign the front of their artwork.)
- be inspired by the spirit of America Go online (www.balletechcincinnati.org) for more about the show show.
- be attached to the completed entry form below
- be postmarked no later than February 28, 2007
- be mailed to: btc/Made in America Poster Contest, 6546 Montgomery Rd, Cincinnati, OH 45213
